millee: DEAR SIR:—I have commenced another year's work with great gladness for the privilege of carrying the good tidings of great joy to the "poor chance" people of our city—to those who through adverse our city—to those who through adverse circumstances are kept in their homes, and would seldom or never hear the gospel if it was not carried to their own door. I find many young men and women coming to our city fresh from a country or village life, and being ignorant of the devices of Satan are soon caught in his snare. To this class I am giving much attention, believing that prevention is better than cure. I am trying to help them by pointing out to them the pitfalle; by giving to them temperance, religious and social purity leaflets; also urging upon them the necessity of attending church; Several of my little flock cuttled of
